Rodbaston Hall

Located in a stunning 180 hectare rural estate in Penkridge, the beautifully restored 19th century Rodbaston Hall has gained a reputation as Staffordshire's hidden gem. The perfect wedding venue for the discerning bride and groom-to-be, the hall is home to elegant banqueting suites and tranquil gardens that ooze character and charm.

An extremely popular wedding venue, Rodbaston Hall not only provides a beautiful backdrop for a sophisticated civil ceremony and reception, but with endless lush greenery and gardens, it's also the perfect place for guests to enjoy a celebratory glass of champagne.

Exclusively yours...

Available to hire on an exclusive basis and with a dedicated event coordinator on hand to ensure every aspect of your big day runs smoothly, couples who celebrate their big day at Rodbaston Hall can relax and enjoy the moment, while staff take care of every detail. From the moment you visit and book your date to the moment you depart as a newly married couple, a team of experienced staff will help ensure your wedding is truly a day to remember.

Civil Ceremonies

Rodbaston Hall has three beautiful rooms which are licensed to hold civil ceremonies and also provide the ideal setting for wedding receptions. Holding your ceremony and your reception all in one venue makes your special day a much more relaxing affair bringing all your family and friends together.

You will truly be made to feel like the Lords and Ladies of this beautiful house.

The Holtom Room

A truly splendid room, full of character and boasting a large bay window with French doors overlooking Rodbaston Hall's extensive landscaped gardens.

The Holland Room

An intimate room with views over the formal boxed gardens and the extensive landscaped lawns.

The Lewis Room

A traditionally decorated room with beautiful oak floors and large windows offering a stunning outlook across Rodbaston Hall's landscaped gardens.

Larger Ceremonies

The Holtom, Lewis and Holland rooms can be opened up to offer one larger room to accommodate larger civil weddings.

Catering

The catering for your wedding at Rodbaston Hall is provided by Jenkinsons of Stafford, an independent family run company with over half a century of experience in the catering industry. Jenkinsons offer exceptional personal service with the flexibility to tailor the whole day to suit your requirements.
